State vs. Christopher J Wilson

Probable Cause Statement Form

Date: 2/7/2019

Report: 19-0426

I, Erica Hopper, knowing that false statements on this form are punishable by law, state that the facts contained herein are true.

I have probable cause to believe that on 2/6/2019, at 10825 Gregory Lane, Raytown, Missouri 64133, Christopher J. Wilson, a white male born 2/6/1990, [REDACTED], committed one or more criminal offense(s).

The facts supporting this belief are as follows:

On 2/6/2019 at 2250 hours, Raytown Police Officers were dispatched to 10825 Gregory Lane, Raytown, Missouri 64133 regarding a stabbing. Dispatch advised the officers that Christopher Wilson stabbed his father with a sword.

Officer Brandon Meyer responded from an off-duty uniformed assignment and was first on scene. Officer Meyer advised as he arrived to the listed address, he observed a white male, identified as Christopher J. Wilson, exiting the residence armed with a knife. Officer Meyer also observed a sword on the porch behind Christopher Wilson and heard a female voice yelling "he stabbed him". Officer Meyer verbally ordered Christopher Wilson to drop the knife and to get on the ground, to which he complied. At that time, Officer Peterman and Corporal Greer arrived on scene. Corporal Greer and Officer Peterman placed Christopher Wilson in handcuffs. Christopher Wilson was secured in the back of Officer Salazar's marked patrol vehicle.

Officer Meyer stated after Christopher Wilson was secured, he entered the house. By that time, the female, Dianne Wilson, stated "he stabbed him" and "there's blood everywhere". Officer Meyer went into the living room where he reported seeing an elderly white male, identified as Charles D. Wilson, lying face down on the kitchen floor in a pool of apparent blood. Officer Meyer yelled to Charles D. Wilson and asked where he was stabbed and Charles D. Wilson replied with "in the legs" in a muffled voice.

Officer Meyer and Corporal Greer rendered aid to Charles D. Wilson while waiting for Raytown Fire to arrive. Officer Meyer noted multiple wounds to Charles D. Wilson to include his leg, hand and neck as Raytown Fire arrived on scene. He also noted the apparent blood in the kitchen to be deep red and to contain clots. Charles D. Wilson was transported to the hospital by Raytown Fire.

Detective Sergeant A. Hixon and I arrived on scene at 0015 hours on 2/7/2019. The scene was processed and evidence was recovered.

Detective E. Hartenstein responded to Research Medical Center located at 2316 E. Meyer Boulevard, Kansas City, Missouri 64132 to make contact with Charles D. Wilson while the scene was being processed. Detective Hartenstein conducted an interview with Charles D. Wilson in Trauma Room #1. Detective Hartenstein advised Charles D. Wilson was sitting on the couch at approximately 9:00 P.M. on 2/6/2019 when his son, Christopher J. Wilson, entered the room. Charles D. Wilson reported Christopher was 'getting loud' and saying that he (Charles D. Wilson) was Jewish and part of the Mafia. Charles Wilson said he told Christopher Wilson to lower his voice and he got up to go to the kitchen. Charles Wilson advised while in the kitchen, Christopher Wilson pushed him from behind, causing him to fall onto the kitchen floor. Charles Wilson then stated that Christopher Wilson stabbed him in the lower part of his right leg with a large 'Viking' sword. Charles D. Wilson then said that Christopher Wilson tried to stab him in the stomach with the sword. Charles Wilson stated he yelled at Christopher Wilson to stop while he was holding onto the blade of the sword with his two hands. He said his wife, Dianne Wilson called 911 and doesn't remember anything else.

While interviewing Charles D. Wilson, Detective Hartenstein observed multiple injuries. Charles D. Wilson had a laceration to the right hand extending from the bottom of his thumb at the web to almost the wrist area. There were multiple lacerations to Charles Wilson's fingers on both hands as well. There were two (2) injuries to Charles Wilson's lower right leg. One injury was on the inside of the lower leg and another injury was on the outside of the lower right leg. Additionally, Charles Wilson had a laceration to the left side of his face as well as a vertical laceration below his left ear.

Detective Hartenstein then made contact with Dianne Wilson, Charles' wife and Christopher's mother. Dianne Wilson stated Christopher Wilson came upstairs into her bedroom with a curved knife in his hand with finger holes. While in the bedroom, Christopher Wilson was making threats towards family members to include his deceased sister. Dianne Wilson said Christopher Wilson told her that his dad, Charles Wilson, was not actually 'Dad' and "they" chopped his head off. He also mentioned the Mafia, fire storm and ISIS. Dianne Wilson said Christopher Wilson audibly accused Indians of raping her and questioned the diabetic ulcer on Charles Wilson's foot. He also got angry about shampoo bottles in Dianne Wilson's bedroom, which he stomped on causing a mess. Dianne Wilson said Christopher Wilson left her room and returned shortly after with a sword. He mentioned the diabetic ulcer and Mafia. Dianne Wilson asked Christopher Wilson to put the sword away. She said Christopher then left her bedroom with the sword. Dianne Wilson heard Charles Wilson's voice getting louder and heard commotion. At that time, she heard Charles Wilson yell "No Chris, stop". At that time, she called 911 while she went downstairs. As she walked into the kitchen, she observed Charles Wilson lying on the kitchen floor with Christopher Wilson standing over him. Dianne Wilson stated Christopher Wilson was trying to stab Charles Wilson in the stomach with the sword, however, Charles Wilson was holding the blade of the sword with both his hands. Dianne Wilson said she tried to push Christopher Wilson off her husband, but was unsuccessful. Christopher Wilson then reportedly said that his dad had a gun. At that time, Christopher Wilson pulled out a knife and attempted to cut off Charles Wilson's shirt. Dianne Wilson said Christopher Wilson then laid on top of Charles Wilson and wrapped his arms around Charles Wilson's neck. Dianne Wilson then stated the police arrived.

At 0335 hours on 2/7/2019, Officer Peterman, Officer Salazar responded to Raytown Detention to process Christopher Wilson for perishable evidence. While in Detention, Detention Technician Hunter Roberts advised Christopher Wilson requested to speak to an attorney during one of the recent cell checks. Upon contact with Christopher Wilson in Cell #1, I advised him I was going to be processing him. I photographed and processed Christopher Wilson for perishable evidence. During processing, Christopher Wilson made multiple spontaneous utterances. While showing me a puncture wound to his right outer thigh area, he said something to the effect of "The pointed edges on the sword are sharp. It did a good job because I don't feel anything." He also stated he was holding the sword like a "fighter".
