Detectives were able to recover surveillance video from the [REDACTED] and observed the camera labeled [REDACTED] to be attached to the west side of the building and capturing a portion of Walrond Ave and pointing south. The timestamp on the camera begins at 11:59:59.829 PM and ends at 1:00:00.224 AM. This timestamp is the same as real time.

In reviewing the street side video, Detectives observed the following:

At 12:28:05 AM - red four door hatchback vehicle with chrome wheels, plastic front license plate holder but no license plate displayed, rear license plate affixed, believed to be a red 2020 Kia Rio, enters the frame driving southbound on Walrond Ave. The red vehicle stops roughly in front of the garage and driveway belonging to [REDACTED] but located on the west side of the house, on Walrond Ave. It then reverses and completes a three point turn exiting the frame before re-entering the frame by reversing southbound on Walrond Ave and parking along the east curb, facing northbound at 12:30 AM.

The driver of the red vehicle exits and walks to a silver minivan parked in the driveway of [REDACTED] where he interacts with the occupants. The driver (and later confirmed suspect) is observed to be a black male wearing white t-shirt, orange shorts, unknown black item hanging from front right hip and white athletic shoes with darker markings towards the bottom. The suspect is wearing what appears to be fashion glasses and is wearing his hair in what appears to be dreadlocks gathered on the top of the head in a looser type of bun. Based on the suspect standing close to the red vehicle, the minivan and the victim, the suspect's stature appears to be smaller. The victim is known to be 5'1" and the suspect appears to be only slightly taller than her and slightly thinner. The suspect is distinctively out-toeing as he walks.

The victim exits the red vehicle front passenger seat at 12:31 AM. Both victim and suspect walk back and forth between the minivan and their red vehicle. At 12:33 AM, the suspect retrieves what appears to be an electronic device (appears to be either a very large cell phone or smaller tablet) from the red vehicle and hands it over to one of the occupants of the minivan. The victim and suspect continue interacting with the occupants of the minivan until 12:34 AM, when they walk back to the red car.

The victim and suspect continue to reach in and out of the red vehicle through all doors (as if searching for something) until 12:43:08 AM. At this time, the victim is observed walking northbound from around the driver side of the red vehicle (in the street) and onto the east sidewalk. As she is walking from the street and onto the east sidewalk easement, she can be seen putting her arms up and moving her hands left and right before lowering her arms back down. At this moment, the victim can be seen looking back towards the suspect by turning her head and looking over her right shoulder while continuing to walk northbound. The suspect (visible at this moment from the waist down) is observed walking towards her from the rear passenger side of the red vehicle.

At 12:43:14 AM, the suspect is observed to be in the easement, by the front end of the red vehicle. His right arm is fully extended forward and pointed a gun in the direction of the victim. At this same time, the victim is observed abruptly tucking her head into the right shoulder while simultaneously bringing her arms up to her head in a defensive posture. The suspect continues to close the distance as the victim turns and ends up being face to face with the suspect. The victim raises her arms up with her hands open facing the suspect in a reactionary defensive posture. She then turns away from him and attempts to walk away southbound. As she does this, the suspect pursues her and strikes her in the back of the head with his left arm; unable to determine open hand or closed fist. While the victim continues to advance southbound, she places her left hand on the back of the head and right hand close to it. She is bending forward at the waist and away from the suspect, who is now immediately to her right. The suspect grabs the victim with his left hand by the back of the head/hair and holds her head down as he proceeds to drag her down to the ground. The victim can be observed attempting to protect herself by holding her head with hands. The suspect brings his right hand, which is still holding the gun, to the victim's head and her body is observed to go limp at 12:43:27 AM as the suspect begins to retrieve his right arm away from the victim's head. The suspect continues to drag the victim until she is all the way down on the ground, on her back. The suspect then stands over the victim and walks over her right to left. He then walks directly to the driver door of the red vehicle. As he is doing that, he can be observed pointing the handgun at the silver minivan, which is observed turning swiftly pulling out of the driveway and driving away northbound on Walrond Ave at 12:43:43 AM. The suspect begins driving the same direction at 12:43:50 AM. The vehicle moves forward a very short distance before the suspect stops and looks over at the victim for roughly two seconds. He then drives away northbound on Walrond Ave and out of view.

PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT FORM

On 06/28/2024, Detectives again responded out to [REDACTED] and contacted [REDACTED] to show him some photos.

He was shown a photo of a white female, a black male, and two partial vehicles and stated that the car looked like where he had parked and pointed to the partial red car that was visible in the photo. He stated that he believed the white female was [REDACTED] after being shown a photo of him and [REDACTED] to but was unable to identify who the black male in the photos was with [REDACTED].

Witness [REDACTED] was then escorted to the 7th floor interview room 4 where she provided the following statement:

She stated that she and [REDACTED] then walked away and when she returned to the house she noticed someone lying on the ground and went over to check on them and discovered it was [REDACTED]. She stated she heard sirens coming so she went back across the street in an effort not to mess with the scene.

During the interview she was shown a single photo of Richard Harris B/M [REDACTED] and was unable to make a positive ID stating that he has longer hair than what was in the photo. She was then shown a photo of a red car and stated that it looked like the car “Rich” drives. She was shown a photo containing [REDACTED] and a black male and stated that it was [REDACTED] in the photo and the red car that was in the photos was similar to the one “Rich” was in. She was shown a photo of Richard Harris from a Facebook photo that was taken from his publicly accessed account and stated that it looked like “Rich” but he was healthier looking in the photo than he is now and his skin looked better.

On 07/08/2024, Richard Harris was taken into custody for the Homicide Investigation and an outstanding warrant for a US Marshals Probation Violation Warrant from 02/20/2024. Harris was transported to Police Headquarters for questioning. Harris was advised of his Miranda Rights, stated he understood his rights, but was unable to stay awake. Detectives only asked name and date of birth and then stopped the interview due to him falling asleep.

When Harris was taken into custody he was with two females. The females agreed to come to Headquarters to provide a statement. Harris was also driving a red 2020 Kia Rio that was stolen out of Kansas City, Missouri on 05/29/2024, which is very similar in appearance with the suspect vehicle in the surveillance video.
