Det. Sidney Anderson, Jackson County Sherriff's Department

STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

JCSD CASE NUMBER 17-02194

DATE 07-28-2017

I, Detective Sidney C. Anderson, a deputy with the Jackson County, Missouri Sheriff's Department, upon my oath, and under penalties of perjury, state as follows:

- 1) I have probable cause to believe that between 02-20-2017 and 04-22-2017 at 1300 Cherry, Kansas City, MO 64106, which is inside the boundaries of Jackson County, Missouri, (KENNEDY, Ceantonyo D. B/M 08-16-1997), committed one or more criminal offenses.

POSSESSION OF CONTRABAND

- 2) The facts supporting this belief are as follows:

The Jackson County Detention Center (JCDC) houses adult inmates being held on Missouri state charges. It is located at 1300 Cherry Street, Kansas City, Jackson County, Missouri. The average daily population of inmates in JCDC is approximately 750 to 800. Over 80% of these JCDC inmates are awaiting trial on state felony charges. All telephone calls from inmates to the outside world are monitored and recorded by JCDC. This prevents inmates from directing or participating in illegal activity, including ordering violent or intimidating acts be done to those connected with their court cases. RSMO 221.111 prohibits the possession of contraband in violation of jail regulations. In the JCDC inmate manual, contraband is defined as anything not issued by the jail. JCDC inmates are never allowed to have cell phones and smart phones, which are a particularly problematic type of contraband. If present in the jail, secret untraceable phones constitute a significant public safety threat. This is particularly true for inmates charged with serious violent felonies such as murder because they have incentives to try to initiate violent and illegal actions against witnesses in their cases.

On February 21, 2017, Jackson County Jail Correctional Officer ("C/O") Nabors was conducting rackdown procedures, prior to lights out, on the fifth floor (J5F) with C/O Naganza. One inmate asked if he could step away from his cell to retrieve his headphones which were plugged into the common television. While watching the inmate attempt to unplug his headphones, C/O Nabors observed a cell phone fall from its resting place behind the TV. C/O Nabors advised C/O Naganza to pick up the phone due to it having fallen on the floor. C/O Nabors asked the inmate if the property was his and the inmate said that it wasn't. The next day, on February 22, at about 11:00 AM, I responded to the disciplinary office where I took custody of the cell phone. It was a Gray Alcatel Smartphone, Model #4060A, SN #B 1780002C 170SUVZ. I secured it in my office.

A Jackson County search warrant was obtained on February 23rd, 2017. After processing the phone at the Heart of America Regional Computer Forensics Laboratory, the phone was identified as having been used by Ce-Antonyo Kennedy (B/M 08-16-1997). The phone contained what appeared to be a “selfie” photograph of Ce-Antonyo Kennedy in Jackson County Jail clothing. Additionally, text messages were discovered between the Alcatel cell phone and (785) 979-0568. A Google search of that number leads to a second result of:

This result is accessible at <http://www.legaldirectories.com/Colby-Juliane-L-855643-Atty.aspx>. This number is also the number listed on the Missouri Bar Website Member directory as Juliane Colby’s work phone number. Her place of business registered with the Missouri Bar as 920 Main St., Suite 500, Kansas City, Jackson County, Missouri, 64105.

Juliane Colby was a member of the defense team in Ce-Antonyo Kennedy’s murder case, 1516-CR00258, working as a “mitigation specialist.” Jail logs show that she visited Ce-Antonyo Kennedy 33 times between January 6, 2017 and April 10, 2017. A “taint review” was conducted by Deputy US Attorney Gene Porter to remove any privileged information. Deputy USA Porter provided a redacted version of the download containing only non-privileged text messages. It was logged into evidence by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The messages are sexually suggestive and are reproduced below. A message marked in the “type” column as “Incoming” is a message FROM Juliane Colby’s phone number TO the contraband cell phone discovered in the jail. A message in the “type” column marked as “Outgoing” is a message FROM the contraband cellphone TO Juliane Colby’s number.

It should be noted that in State v. Ce-Antonyo Kennedy, 1516-CR00258, one of the State's main cooperating witnesses was a teenaged girl with the initials of DW who had been in a romantic relationship with Ce-Antonyo Kennedy when he murdered a 14 year old on video at the Bay Waterpark in South Kansas City.

On April 10, 2017, I was present when jail staff were discussing that a C/O had observed possibly inappropriate contact between Ce-Antonyo Kennedy and a person described as his attorney. The attorney in question appeared to be Juliane Colby (described as a tall slender female). Jail staff believed that on April 10, 2017, she was in the contact visitation area on the fifth floor with her shoe off rubbing Kennedy's leg with her foot. It is my understanding video was reviewed however there was no viewable evidence seen on the JCDC surveillance system.

On April 11, 2017, I was contacted by C/O Abrego regarding suspicious activity. C/O Abrego said that Juliane Colby appeared to be visiting with the inmate quite regularly. She described an instance when Juliane Colby brought in clothes for the inmate to wear to court and asked if she could go in the room with him while he was trying on the clothes.

On April 12, 2017, I contacted C/O Aubrey who said that on 04-10-2017, he was working the fifth floor of JCDC when he observed activity that he described as odd. C/O Aubrey observed both Ce-Antonyo Kennedy and Juliane Colby sitting in the contact visit area. Juliane Colby appeared to be taking off her shoes and showing Ce-Antonyo Kennedy her feet. C/O Aubrey continued to observe both parties but didn't see any physical contact between them.

Due to the above listed incidents I recalled a conversation that I had on April 7, 2017, while at the Jackson County Courthouse in Kansas City near the holding cells on the ground floor. C/O Lamothe told me that he observed what appeared to be inappropriate behavior between Juliane Colby and Ce-Antonyo Kennedy.

C/O Lamothe advised that Juliane Colby appeared to be very clingy with Ce-Antonyo Kennedy and at times appeared to be standing very close to him and may have been touching him on the leg. C/O Lamothe advised the Juliane Colby's behavior was suspicious and made him feel very uncomfortable.

On April 13, 2017 I contacted C/O Tipton on the fifth floor of JCDC. C/O Tipton advised that he had observed Juliane Colby visiting with Ce-Antonyo Kennedy in the contact visiting area on the fifth floor of JCDC. He described her sitting close to the inmate, showing Ce-Antonyo Kennedy her feet. C/O Tipton further advised it appeared that Juliane Colby touched or was rubbing Ce-Antonyo Kennedy's leg with her foot.

On April 14, 2017, C/O Tali was posted in Master control observing, via camera, the professional visitation of Juliane Colby with Ce-Antonyo Kennedy. It appeared that Juliane Colby was crying while speaking with Ce-Antonyo Kennedy. At the end of the visitation, Juliane Colby was observed placing a piece of candy directly into Ce-Antonyo Kennedy's mouth, in violation of jail regulations.

On April 22, 2017, Jackson County Department of Corrections personnel were advised that incarcerated JCDC inmates were posting videos on Facebook from within the jail. One of the individuals identified in those videos was Ce-Antonyo Kennedy. Kennedy's jail cell was subsequently searched and a white LG smartphone was found, contained inside of a brown envelope. Inside the envelope was a stack of legal paperwork with a section that appeared to be carved out to hide the cellphone. A charger for the phone was located in a container of peanut butter. Also found inside the envelope was a pair of women's underwear.

Cell phone chargers constitute an additional danger in a jail environment. In addition to being used to charge, the cord can be used as a garrote to effect a strangulation.

Ce-Antonyo Kennedy was brought to the second floor interview room. Upon entering the interview room, Ce-Antonyo Kennedy was read his Miranda rights and asked if he understood his rights. Ce-Antonyo Kennedy indicated he understood his rights and spoke to me. Ce-Antonyo Kennedy initially did not wish to talk but when he was asked about the cell phone he advised that the phone was not his. During the interview Ce-Antonyo Kennedy appeared to be very guarded and evasive when asked questions. He later told me that the phone found in his cell cost him $600. Ce-Antonyo Kennedy said that he is the one who tore out the section in the paperwork in order to hide the cell phone in the legal paperwork. He refused to reveal how the cell phone got into the facility but alluded to the fact that there may have been JCDC staff involvement. When asked about the women's underwear, Ce-Antonyo Kennedy told me that he thought it was a practical joke because it was given to him inside of a t-shirt when laundry was distributed. I asked Ce-Antonyo Kennedy if the underwear belonged to the female attorney who has been visiting him numerous times but he denied it.

The possession of two cellphones, a charger, and women's underwear in the Jackson County Detention Center is a crime under RSMO 221.111 which prohibits the possession of contraband in violation of jail regulations. Based on the nature of the text messages between Ce-Antonyo Kennedy and Juliane Colby, the fact that she was texting him while he was incarcerated on a phone she reasonably had to know was contraband, the observations by jail staff of her conduct while in his presence, her documented willingness to provide items to Mr. Kennedy in violation of jail regulations and the rest of the information provided in this affidavit, I believe there is probable cause to believe Juliane Colby aided or encouraged Ce-Antonyo

Kennedy in the commission of the crime of possession of contraband in the Jackson County Detention Center.

STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

JCSD CASE NUMBER 17-02194

DATE 07-28-2017

I, Detective Sidney C. Anderson, a deputy with the Jackson County, Missouri Sheriff's Department, upon my oath, and under penalties of perjury, state as follows:

- 1) I have probable cause to believe that between 02-20-2017 and 04-22-2017 at 1300 Cherry, Kansas City, MO 64106, which is inside the boundaries of Jackson County, Missouri, (COLBY, Juliane L. A/F 09-25-1977), committed one or more criminal offenses.

POSSESSION OF CONTRABAND

- 2) The facts supporting this belief are as follows:

The Jackson County Detention Center (JCDC) houses adult inmates being held on Missouri state charges. It is located at 1300 Cherry Street, Kansas City, Jackson County, Missouri. The average daily population of inmates in JCDC is approximately 750 to 800. Over 80% of these JCDC inmates are awaiting trial on state felony charges. All telephone calls from inmates to the outside world are monitored and recorded by JCDC. This prevents inmates from directing or participating in illegal activity, including ordering violent or intimidating acts be done to those connected with their court cases. RSMO 221.111 prohibits the possession of contraband in violation of jail regulations. In the JCDC inmate manual, contraband is defined as anything not issued by the jail. JCDC inmates are never allowed to have cell phones and smart phones, which are a particularly problematic type of contraband. If present in the jail, secret untraceable phones constitute a significant public safety threat. This is particularly true for inmates charged with serious violent felonies such as murder because they have incentive to try to initiate violent and illegal actions against witnesses in their cases.

On February 21, 2017, Jackson County Jail Correctional Officer ("C/O") Nabors was conducting rackdown procedures, prior to lights out, on the fifth floor (J5F) with C/O Naganza. One inmate asked if he could step away from his cell to retrieve his headphones which were plugged into the common television. While watching the inmate attempt to unplug his headphones, C/O Nabors observed a cell phone fall from its resting place behind the TV. C/O Nabors advised C/O Naganza to pick up the phone due to it having fallen on the floor. C/O Nabors asked the inmate if the property was his and the inmate said that it wasn't. The next day, on February 22, at about 11:00 AM, I responded to the disciplinary office where I took custody of the cell phone. It was a Gray Alcatel Smartphone, Model #4060A, SN #B 1780002C 170SUVZ. I secured it in my office.

A Jackson County search warrant was obtained on February 23rd, 2017. After processing the phone at the Heart of America Regional Computer Forensics Laboratory, the phone was identified as having been used by Ce-Antonyo Kennedy (B/M 08-16-1997). The phone contained what appeared to be a “selfie” photograph of Ce-Antonyo Kennedy in Jackson County Jail clothing. Additionally, text messages were discovered between the Alcatel cell phone and (785) 979-██████. A Google search of that number leads to a second result of:

Juliane L. Colby

Ste 500
Kansas City, MO 64105-2064

Contact Juliane L. Colby
(785) 979-██████

This result is accessible at <http://www.legaldirectories.com/Colby-Juliane-L-855643-Atty.aspx>. This number is also the number listed on the Missouri Bar Website Member directory as Juliane Colby’s work phone number. Her place of business registered with the Missouri Bar as 920 Main St., Suite 500, Kansas City, Jackson County, Missouri, 64105.

Juliane Colby was a member of the defense team in Ce-Antonyo Kennedy’s murder case, 1516-CR00258, working as a “mitigation specialist.” Jail logs show that she visited Ce-Antonyo Kennedy 33 times between January 6, 2017 and April 10, 2017. A “taint review” was conducted by Deputy US Attorney Gene Porter to remove any privileged information. Deputy USA Porter provided a redacted version of the download containing only non-privileged text messages. It was logged into evidence by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The messages are sexually suggestive and are reproduced below. A message marked in the “type” column as “Incoming” is a message FROM Juliane Colby’s phone number TO the contraband cell phone discovered in the jail. A message in the “type” column marked as “Outgoing” is a message FROM the contraband cellphone TO Juliane Colby’s number.

It should be noted that in *State v. I explained to her that it was a club and it wasn't good to be in one because it can be non inclusive and people in a gang/club can be a bad influence.

She was mad at me for reaching out to his daughter. So they did a search of his cell. They found a piece of paper with an address that was close to mine. Not sure how he got it.

On April 10, 2017, I was present when jail staff were discussing that a C/O had observed possibly inappropriate contact between Ce-Antonyo Kennedy and a person described as his attorney. The attorney in question appeared to be Juliane Colby (described as a tall slender female). Jail staff believed that on April 10, 2017, she was in the contact visitation area on the fifth floor with her shoe off rubbing Kennedy's leg with her foot. It is my understanding video was reviewed however there was no viewable evidence seen on the JCDC surveillance system.

On April 11, 2017, I was contacted by C/O Abrego regarding suspicious activity. C/O Abrego said that Juliane Colby appeared to be visiting with the inmate quite regularly. She described an instance when Juliane Colby brought in clothes for the inmate to wear to court and asked if she could go in the room with him while he was trying on the clothes.

On April 12, 2017, I contacted C/O Aubrey who said that on 04-10-2017, he was working the fifth floor of JCDC when he observed activity that he described as odd. C/O Aubrey observed both Ce-Antonyo Kennedy and Juliane Colby sitting in the contact visit area. Juliane Colby appeared to be taking off her shoes and showing Ce-Antonyo Kennedy her feet. C/O Aubrey continued to observe both parties but didn't see any physical contact between them.

Due to the above listed incidents I recalled a conversation that I had on April 7, 2017, while at the Jackson County Courthouse in Kansas City near the holding cells on the ground floor. C/O Lamothe told me that he observed what appeared to be inappropriate behavior between Juliane Colby and Ce-Antonyo Kennedy.

C/O Lamothe advised that Juliane Colby appeared to be very clingy with Ce-Antonyo Kennedy and at times appeared to be standing very close to him and may have been touching him on the leg. C/O Lamothe advised the Juliane Colby's behavior was suspicious and made him feel very uncomfortable.

On April 13, 2017 I contacted C/O Tipton on the fifth floor of JCDC. C/O Tipton advised that he had observed Juliane Colby visiting with Ce-Antonyo Kennedy in the contact visiting area on the fifth floor of JCDC. He described her sitting close to the inmate, showing Ce-Antonyo Kennedy her feet. C/O Tipton further advised it appeared that Juliane Colby touched or was rubbing Ce-Antonyo Kennedy's leg with her foot.

On April 14, 2017, C/O Tali was posted in Master control observing, via camera, the professional visitation of Juliane Colby with Ce-Antonyo Kennedy. It appeared that Juliane Colby was crying while speaking with Ce-Antonyo Kennedy. At the end of the visitation, Juliane Colby was observed placing a piece of candy directly into Ce-Antonyo Kennedy's mouth, in violation of jail regulations.

On April 22, 2017, Jackson County Department of Corrections personnel were advised that incarcerated JCDC inmates were posting videos on Facebook from within the jail. One of the individuals identified in those videos was Ce-Antonyo Kennedy. Kennedy's jail cell was subsequently searched and a white LG smartphone was found, contained inside of a brown envelope. Inside the envelope was a stack of legal paperwork with a section that appeared to be carved out to hide the cellphone. A charger for the phone was located in a container of peanut butter. Also found inside the envelope was a pair of women's underwear.

Cell phone chargers constitute an additional danger in a jail environment. In addition to being used to charge, the cord can be used as a garrote to effect a strangulation.

Ce-Antonyo Kennedy was brought to the second floor interview room. Upon entering the interview room, Ce-Antonyo Kennedy was read his Miranda rights and asked if he understood his rights. Ce-Antonyo Kennedy indicated he understood his rights and spoke to me. Ce-Antonyo Kennedy initially did not wish to talk but when he was asked about the cell phone he advised that the phone was not his. During the interview Ce-Antonyo Kennedy appeared to be very guarded and evasive when asked questions. He later told me that the phone found in his cell cost him $600. Ce-Antonyo Kennedy said that he is the one who tore out the section in the paperwork in order to hide the cell phone in the legal paperwork. He refused to reveal how the cell phone got into the facility but alluded to the fact that there may have been JCDC staff involvement. When asked about the women's underwear, Ce-Antonyo Kennedy told me that he thought it was a practical joke because it was given to him inside of a t-shirt when laundry was distributed. I asked Ce-Antonyo Kennedy if the underwear belonged to the female attorney who has been visiting him numerous times but he denied it.

The possession of two cellphones, a charger, and women's underwear in the Jackson County Detention Center is a crime under RSMO 221.111 which prohibits the possession of contraband in violation of jail regulations. Based on the nature of the text messages between Ce-Antonyo Kennedy and Juliane Colby, the fact that she was texting him while he was incarcerated on a phone she reasonably had to know was contraband, the observations by jail staff of her conduct while in his presence, her documented willingness to provide items to Mr. Kennedy in violation of jail regulations and the rest of the information provided in this affidavit, I believe there is probable cause to believe Juliane Colby aided or encouraged Ce-Antonyo

Kennedy in the commission of the crime of possession of contraband in the Jackson County Detention Center.
