The facts supporting this belief are as follows:

Robbery-1st Degree
Armed Criminal Action

On 09/12/2017 at approximately 0032 hours, Officers were dispatched to 11314 Eastern Ave in regard to suspicious activity and an abandoned vehicle with a Domino's Pizza sign on the roof of the vehicle. Further investigation revealed the vehicle belonged to the victim of an Armed Robbery that occurred at 7434 Food Ln, Kansas City, Jackson County, Missouri. Limited statements made by the victim prior to him being transported to an area hospital for potential life threatening injuries revealed he had been struck by a baseball bat about the head and body and his vehicle, $30 cash and the pizza he had been called to deliver were stolen. Detectives contacted the victim at the hospital and during the interview he stated that there were three black male suspects, a female suspect, and a white male suspect.

Detectives later conducted a Facebook check of the phone number used to order the pizza (913-215-1526) and it was associated to a white female with a Facebook name, "Leann Brooke Gant." The Facebook page tagged James Gant and indicated they were in a relationship. An ARS of James Gant revealed a recent report where he was arrested and the officer stated that Mikeal Farr, James Gant, and Leann Howe all resided at 11605 Food Lane. Leann Brooke Gant was later determined to be Leann Howe W/F 05/13/1997 after detectives compared a DOR photo to the Facebook photograph. Howe's address was listed as 11605 Food Lane in multiple recent police reports, which is approximately 200 yds from the location where the robbery occurred.

On 9/13/2017, detectives responded to the maintenance building of Kirktown and located surveillance cameras which captured the event. Management provided detectives with the footage which showed the suspects start to wait for the victim by the playground at 2348 hours. Shortly after midnight, the victim arrived and was waved over to the playground by the suspects. The victim was dragged out of the car and beaten with a bat. The video showed a white male suspect, a white female suspect, and three unknown suspects wearing dark clothing. Suspect #2 (white female suspect), later identified as Madison Lambson W/F 03/10/1999, and suspect #3 (white male suspect), later identified as Tanner Stone W/M 02/26/1997, were shown walking from the scene in the direction of 11605 Food Lane until they were out of camera range. Suspect #4, later identified as Miriah Farr B/F 08/14/1998, suspect #5, later identified as Mikeal Farr B/M 09/19/1997, and suspect #6, unknown, were shown driving away in the victim's vehicle as the victim lay in the street.

On 09/14/2017, Detectives and Officers responded to 11605 Food Ln and contacted multiple occupants of the residence. Howe signed a Consent to Search Form allowing law enforcement personnel to search the residence. During this search, Domino's pizza boxes and a Domino's pizza delivery bag were located in the kitchen. The pizza boxes still had the tags and included the order information as: Address of 7434 Food Lane, order phone number as 913-215-1526, and 9/11/2017 2333 hours as the order date and time. Howe and Lambson, who admitted to staying at the address in the last week, were subsequently taken into custody. A short time later, witnesses advised detectives that Stone was by the building and he is also a resident at the address. Stone was then arrested on a probation violation warrant.

Detectives interviewed Stone, Lambson, and Howe at Police Headquarters after they waived their rights. Howe admitted she had placed a delivery order with Domino's using her own phone and admitted giving a false address for the delivery location. She believed "something" was going to happen just prior to the robbery. Howe said that Mikeal Farr, whom she had been with in the apartment, grabbed a bat with black tape on the handle and the words "blood gang" on it and put on a mask and exited the apartment with Stone, Lambson, and Miriah Farr. Howe stated that she stayed inside her residence when the group left and a short time later Lambson and Stone came back into the residence carrying pizza boxes and a pizza bag. Howe stated she was told by the group of suspects when they returned to her residence that when they went outside they met the victim in the apartment complex Mikeal Farr struck the victim with the bat multiple times, Miriah Farr stomped the victim's head multiple times, and suspect #6 punched the victim multiple times as Lambson took the pizza from the victim's car. Howe also stated that suspect #6 attempted to steal the victim's vehicle, however could not drive a stick shift and abandoned the vehicle in the area. Howe stated that all of the suspects were in her residence eating the pizza and the bat was still inside of her residence somewhere.

Stone confessed to his involvement in the robbery and stated that he did not know Mikeal Farr was going to beat the victim with a bat. Stone stated that suspect #6 punched the victim three times, Miriah Farr stomped the victim's head multiple times, Lambson took the pizza from the victim's car, and he was present but did not touch the victim. Stone stated that he retrieved the bat from a church after Mikeal Farr told him that he hid it there and he brought it back to the residence.

Lambson confessed to planning a stealing once the victim arrived with the pizza. Lambson stated that the victim became suspicious and once he reentered his car, Mikeal Farr and Miriah Farr pulled him out of the car and Mikeal Farr beat him with a bat. Lambson stated that she took the pizza from the victim's car and ran back to the residence.

After the information was relayed in the interviews, KCPD officers responded back out to 11605 Food Lane to hold on the residence until a search warrant was obtained for the additional evidence. At that time, Mikeal Farr and Miriah Farr were taken into custody and transported to Police Headquarters and interviewed after they both waived their Miranda Rights.

Miriah Farr confessed to participating in the robbery and stated that she stomped the victim's head multiple times.

Mikeal Farr confessed to striking the victim with the bat and stated that he needed to feed his people. Mikeal Farr stated that the bat used in the robbery was placed behind a dresser in the bedroom with a crib at the residence.

Robbery-1st Degree
Armed Criminal Action

On 09/12/2017 at approximately 0032 hours, Officers were dispatched to 11314 Eastern Ave in regard to suspicious activity and an abandoned vehicle with a Domino's Pizza sign on the roof of the vehicle. Further investigation revealed the vehicle belonged to the victim of an Armed Robbery that occurred at 7434 Food Ln, Kansas City, Jackson County, Missouri. Limited statements made by the victim prior to him being transported to an area hospital for potential life threatening injuries revealed he had been struck by a baseball bat about the head and body and his vehicle, $30 cash and the pizza he had been called to deliver were stolen. Detectives contacted the victim at the hospital and during the interview he stated that there were three black male suspects, a female suspect, and a white male suspect.

Detectives later conducted a Facebook check of the phone number used to order the pizza (913-215-1526) and it was associated to a white female with a Facebook name, "Leann Brooke Gant." The Facebook page tagged James Gant and indicated they were in a relationship. An ARS of James Gant revealed a recent report where he was arrested and the officer stated that Mikeal Farr, James Gant, and Leann Howe all resided at 11605 Food Lane. Leann Brooke Gant was later determined to be Leann Howe W/F 05/13/1997 after detectives compared a DOR photo to the Facebook photograph. Howe's address was listed as 11605 Food Lane in multiple recent police reports, which is approximately 200 yds from the location where the robbery occurred.

On 9/13/2017, detectives responded to the maintenance building of Kirktown and located surveillance cameras which captured the event. Management provided detectives with the footage which showed the suspects start to wait for the victim by the playground at 2348 hours. Shortly after midnight, the victim arrived and was waved over to the playground by the suspects. The victim was dragged out of the car and beaten with a bat. The video showed a white male suspect, a white female suspect, and three unknown suspects wearing dark clothing. Suspect #2 (white female suspect), later identified as Madison Lambson W/F 03/10/1999, and suspect #3 (white male suspect), later identified as Tanner Stone W/M 02/26/1997, were shown walking from the scene in the direction of 11605 Food Lane until they were out of camera range. Suspect #4, later identified as Miriah Farr B/F 08/14/1998, suspect #5, later identified as Mikeal Farr B/M 09/19/1997, and suspect #6, unknown, were shown driving away in the victim's vehicle as the victim lay in the street.

On 09/14/2017, Detectives and Officers responded to 11605 Food Ln and contacted multiple occupants of the residence. Howe signed a Consent to Search Form allowing law enforcement personnel to search the residence. During this search, Domino's pizza boxes and a Domino's pizza delivery bag were located in the kitchen. The pizza boxes still had the tags and included the order information as: Address of 7434 Food Lane, order phone number as 913-215-1526, and 9/11/2017 2333 hours as the order date and time. Howe and Lambson, who admitted to staying at the address in the last week, were subsequently taken into custody. A short time later, witnesses advised detectives that Stone was by the building and he is also a resident at the address. Stone was then arrested on a probation violation warrant.

Detectives interviewed Stone, Lambson, and Howe at Police Headquarters after they waived their rights. Howe admitted she had placed a delivery order with Domino's using her own phone and admitted giving a false address for the delivery location. She believed "something" was going to happen just prior to the robbery. Howe said that Mikeal Farr, whom she had been with in the apartment, grabbed a bat with black tape on the handle and the words "blood gang" on it and put on a mask and exited the apartment with Stone, Lambson, and Miriah Farr. Howe stated that she stayed inside her residence when the group left and a short time later Lambson and Stone came back into the residence carrying pizza boxes and a pizza bag. Howe stated she was told by the group of suspects when they returned to her residence that when they went outside they met the victim in the apartment complex Mikeal Farr struck the victim with the bat multiple times, Miriah Farr stomped the victim's head multiple times, and suspect #6 punched the victim multiple times as Lambson took the pizza from the victim's car. Howe also stated that suspect #6 attempted to steal the victim's vehicle, however could not drive a stick shift and abandoned the vehicle in the area. Howe stated that all of the suspects were in her residence eating the pizza and the bat was still inside of her residence somewhere.

Stone confessed to his involvement in the robbery and stated that he did not know Mikeal Farr was going to beat the victim with a bat. Stone stated that suspect #6 punched the victim three times, Miriah Farr stomped the victim's head multiple times, Lambson took the pizza from the victim's car, and he was present but did not touch the victim. Stone stated that he retrieved the bat from a church after Mikeal Farr told him that he hid it there and he brought it back to the residence.

Lambson confessed to planning a stealing once the victim arrived with the pizza. Lambson stated that the victim became suspicious and once he reentered his car, Mikeal Farr and Miriah Farr pulled him out of the car and Mikeal Farr beat him with a bat. Lambson stated that she took the pizza from the victim's car and ran back to the residence.

After the information was relayed in the interviews, KCPD officers responded back out to 11605 Food Lane to hold on the residence until a search warrant was obtained for the additional evidence. At that time, Mikeal Farr and Miriah Farr were taken into custody and transported to Police Headquarters and interviewed after they both waived their Miranda Rights.

Miriah Farr confessed to participating in the robbery and stated that she stomped the victim's head multiple times.

Mikeal Farr confessed to striking the victim with the bat and stated that he needed to feed his people. Mikeal stated that the bat used in the robbery was placed behind a dresser in the bedroom with a crib at the residence.
